Mildred Holland.

Mildred Holland as Angela di Savelli in "The Lily and the Prince," a four act romantic drama by Carina Jordan, produced under the direction of Edward C. White, will be the attraction at the Blanchard Opera House, Montpelier, on Saturday evening, Sept. 12. The coming of Miss Holland is in the nature of a theatrical event. She is a great favorite with the theatre goers of Barre and Montpelier and her reputation has been established by hard, meritorious and conscientious work. Miss Holland's business last season was large and gratifying both to Manager Blanchard of the Opera House and Manager Edward C. White, but from all indications last season's record will be broken Saturday evening. It may not be amiss to say that the success of Mildred Holland is pleasing to every one.

Special Announcement.

Last year Mr. Barclay gave a special prize to the stone cutter working the largest number of hours and told the committee he would make it an annual offer. This was overlooked by the committee in charge this year and Mr. Barclay now wishes to say that he will pay the sum of $5 to the stone cutter in Barre who has lost the least number of hours (actual working time) from September 1, 1902 to Sept. 1, 1903. Communications endorsed by employer should be addressed to C. F. Ramsdell, Sec. C. L. U. Competition will be closed Sept. 24.

Shooting Affair at Arsenal.

Pittsburg, Sept. 11.—William Crowley of Monaca, Pa., was shot in the groin by a soldier at the United States arsenal. He was removed to the West Penn hospital in a serious condition, and a dispute is now on between the police authorities and the commandant at the arsenal concerning the arrest of the soldier who did the shooting. Thefts of copper and lead from the roofs of the barracks have been frequent of late. It is alleged that Crowley and several others were detected removing the copper. Crowley refused to halt when commanded, and the soldier shot him. The others escaped. The police authorities demanded the arrest of the soldier, but the commandant barred the gates and refused to surrender the man.

Withdrawals of Circulation.

Washington, Sept. 11.—Arrangements have been completed at the treasury for the withdrawal by national banks of $3,000,000 of circulation; the limit allowed for the present month. If further applications are received they will be placed on file for October. The full legal limit of retirement has not been reached in any month since October, 1902, and for the last six years it has been reached only one month in every twelve.

Chauffeur Sent to Jail.

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 11.—On a technical charge of assault resulting from careless piloting of an automobile in Worcester June 16 George W. Folsom, chauffeur for J. Montgomery Sears, the Boston millionaire, was sentenced to six months in the house of correction at Worcester at the session of the court here.

Rioting at Belgrade.

Belgrade, Serbia, Sept. 11.—A mob made a great demonstration against the newspapers which have defended the army officers recently arrested. The crowd attempted to proceed to the Turkish legation, but was dispersed by the police.

Rare Orchid Bulbs From Manila.

Among other cargo on the Northern Pacific steamer Victoria is a consignment of orchid bulbs from Manila, which will be forwarded to St. Louis to be exhibited at the big fair, says the Tacoma News. These bulbs were sent out from Manila by the government on the transport Dix and transferred by her to the Victoria after the government freighter met with her accident. They are very rare specimens of the orchid and are said to be worth many thousands of dollars.

Labor Statistics.

Massachusetts in 1899 was the first state to establish a bureau of labor statistics.
